

City of Wilmington Release

The City of Wilmington will make every effort to provide a safe and enjoyable experience for participants in its programs; however, we cannot guarantee that no injuries or damages will occur through participation in our programs. We therefore require each participant to read and sign the following form before participating.

I, _____ (print full name), in consideration of permission to participate in the Fire Citizens' Academy, do hereby remise, release and forever hold harmless the City of Wilmington, their staff, employees or agents and assigns from any responsibility, obligated, cause of action, claims and demands of whatsoever kind in nature arising from or any reason if any and all known unknown foreseen bodily or personal injuries to myself, damage to my personal property or injury or damage to property of others caused by me growing out of or resulting from or incident of my participation in the activities of said City of Wilmington program.

Furthermore, I fully understand that participation in the activities of said program is purely voluntary and that the activities of said program may involve risks and hazards of bodily injury or property damage sustained through participation in the activities of said program.

I further state that I am in proper physical condition to participate in this activity. In addition, I fully understand that the City of Wilmington, its staff, employees, agents, and assigns are under no obligation or duty to provide a physical examination or other evidence of my fitness to participate in these activities; said examination being my sole duty and responsibility.

Please read this entire document before signing. This document releases the City of Wilmington, its staff, agents and assigns from any liability from your participation in the above described activity.
